Friday

Hotel Bordeaux City Centre

A hotel in the centre of Bordeaux with easy links to the nightlife and the various gastronomic restaurants. Also don't forget the superb wine shops scattered around. Some of them are even value for money!

Evening Meal

A great gastronomic treat either in one of the central bistros, or a hand picked favourite.

Saturday

Chateau Visit - the 'right bank'

A visit to one of the many excellent Chateaux of the Saint Emilion / Pomerol / Fronsac areas. An introduction to the wine making methods used and a visit of the cellars, followed by a commented tasting of a recent vintage, and an opportunity to discuss with the wine makers.

St Emilion Town Centre

Lunch in one of the great little bistros scattered around this beautiful town (a world heritage site) with monastic origins. A chance to soak up some atmosphere or even (Time Permitting) to visit the underground Monolithic Cathedral.

A quick stroll around time before setting off on the next round of tastings.

Chateau Visit - the 'Médoc'

Another visit – this time to one of the great chateaux of the Médoc, where some of the greatest wines in the world are crafted. A visit of the wine making facility and a tasting of a recent vintage.

Evening Meal

A great evening meal at one of the many excellent restaurants in the centre of Bordeaux. Stunning views, great locations and a typically gallic atmosphere.
